

AMINE BELLAMINE APPOINTED AS HAHN AIR'S NEW DIRECTOR GLOBAL ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

News / Airlines, Personalities

Hahn Air is pleased to announce that Amine Bellamine has assumed the role of Director Global Account Management as of July 1st 2017. As such, he will support travel agents in Belgium, France, Luxembourg, Mali, Monaco and Switzerland with sales and marketing activities, including trainings and presentations on the company's ticketing services. He takes over from Christine Fluhr who will retire after a more than forty year career in the airline industry.

Amine has been with the leading provider of ticketing and distribution solutions since April 2010. During his tenure, he has played a key role within the Treasury Management team by developing a seamless money repatriation process. With these processes well established, Amine now has the capacity to take up the additional responsibilities of a Director Global Account Management. Amine speaks fluent English, German and Arabic in addition to his mother tongue French.

Hahn Air's Vice President Sales and Agency Distribution, Kimberley Long, said "We would like to thank Christine for her efforts and dedication to the company over the last six years. She led her markets to be among the best performing ones in Europe. At the same time we are pleased that Amine Bellamine with his long-standing experience and in-depth knowledge about our business will take over from Christine. We are confident that Amine will continue to extend all his support to the travel agent community in order to generate more business and sales opportunities."

Image result for hahn air

Image not found or type unknown

For more information about Hahn Air, please visit www.hahnair.com.

18 JULY 2017

ARTICLE LINK:

<https://connect.50skyshades.com/news/personalities/amine-bellamine-appointed-as-hahn-airs-new-director-global-account-management>